

Bur Wood Loop

DIFFICULTY RATING: EASY/MODERATE. Reasonably flat route across farmer's fields & woodland trails.

Birds love the hedgerows on this walk. Use the bird identifier on the next page to see how many varieties you can spot.

ROUTE	MAP
<ol style="list-style-type: none"><li>1. Start at the Millennium Field &amp; take the footpath to the far end of the field behind Bonham-Carter Spinney. Here you will find a wooden gate.</li><li>2. Go through the gate and turn right out onto the road, followed by an immediate left back onto Kennylands Road.</li><li>3. Walk along the edge of the road for about 200m &amp; then cross the road &amp; head diagonally right across the farmer's field.</li><li>4. Go through the first kissing gate; follow the path between the cow/ horse fields &amp; then go through the second kissing gate.</li><li>5. Walk straight until you get to the edge of the field in front of you.</li><li>6. Turn right &amp; follow the path along the edge of the field until you reach Bur Wood.</li><li>7. Hop over the fallen tree &amp; follow the path straight through Bur Wood.</li><li>8. When you reach the track, turn right &amp; go up the steady incline to the farmer's field.</li><li>9. Follow the path diagonally right across the field until you reach the kissing gate.</li><li>10. Go through the kissing gate &amp; follow the path (horses on left/ sheep on right) until you reach the wider track.</li><li>11. Turn left up the track &amp; you will then reach Kennylands Road.</li><li>12. Cross the road &amp; you will find yourself back in the Millennium field.</li></ol>	 1.77 mi Kennylands Road Loop Made with @footpathapp https://footpathapp.com/routes/81801466-A3BB-4C21-853B-2A22235EB445

Bur Wood Loop

How many of these birds can you spot in the hedgerows?

Robin

Chaffinch

Blue Tit

Goldfinch

Bullfinch

Long Tailed Tit

Blackcap

Coal Tit